

NEW ZEALAND RESUSCITATION COUNCIL (NZRC) 2012 CONFERENCE

INTERNATIONAL KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Pat Croskerry MD, PhD

Pat Croskerry MD, PhD is a Professor in Emergency Medicine at Dalhousie University, Halifax, Canada. He holds a cross-appointment in the Faculty of Medical Education. In addition to his medical training, he holds a doctorate in Experimental Psychology and completed a Fellowship in Clinical Psychology. He has worked in the area of Patient Safety for the last 15 years. He established the first Canadian Symposium on Medical Error in 2001, which continued annually as the National Patient Safety Meeting (Halifax Series) until 2010. His research is principally concerned with clinical decision-making, specifically on diagnostic error. He is senior editor on a major text Patient Safety in Emergency Medicine published in 2009.

Mary Fran Hazinski RN, MSN, FAAN

Having become a highly-respected and recognised authority in paediatric critical care nursing, Mary Fran Hazinski joined the American Heart Association (AHA) in 1988. She was Chair of the AHA Emergency Cardiovascular Care (ECC) Committee from 1997-1999 and was then appointed Senior Science Editor for ECC – a position she still holds. Mary Fran is acknowledged as a world authority on paediatric CPR and has researched and published widely in this International Liaison Committee on Resuscitation 2005, International Consensus on CPR and ECC Science with treatment recommendations, and Editor of the 2005 AHA Guidelines for CPR and ECC. Mary Fran has been a key member of the international resuscitation community for almost 20 years and has collaborated with the ERC on many important projects. It is entirely appropriate that her contributions should be recognised with the award of Honorary Membership of the ERC.
