

SECTION 5: Continuing Professional Development

Critical Incident Analysis

Name
------	--

Please remember to respect confidentiality and professional codes of conduct when writing this analysis

What happened and where – a brief history of the case and your role in it

What were your immediate thoughts during the event? Include why this was significant to you.

What are your thoughts following reflection? How else could I interpret the situation?

What have you achieved / learned from this case? Explain how the incident will impact on you

Plans for the future practice